

In Demand Occupations in Healthcare: Michigan Data

| Occupation Title | Anticipated shortage of licensees by 2015 |
|--|--|
| Cardiovascular technicians | 1,200 |
| Chiropractors | 1,000 |
| Dental assistants | 5,500 |
| Dental hygienists | 1,000 |
| Dentists | 500 |
| Emergency medical technicians/paramedics | 2,010 |
| Lab technicians | 1,000 |
| Lab technologists | 2,800 |
| Medical assistants | 3,000 |
| Medical records technologists | 2,900 |
| Nuclear medicine technologists | 200 |
| Nurses (practical) | 5,600 |
| Nurses (registered) | 18,000 |
| Occupational therapists | 1,200 |
| Pharmacists | 2,400 |
| Pharmacy technicians | 5,000 |
| Physical therapists | 2,300 |
| Podiatrists | 95 |
| Radiation therapists | 150 |
| Radiological technicians | 2,000 |
| Respiratory therapists | 400 |

Statistics derived from the October 2004 report "Health Care Workforce Development in Michigan", prepared by Public Policy Associates, Inc., Lansing, MI